

Private Equity Funds – Strategic Fund Advisory

Supporting international GPs in cross-border capital formation and investor access

About Aries76 & Our Focus

About Aries76 Ltd

Aries76 Ltd is a London-based boutique advisory firm specializing in strategic fund advisory and capital formation for established international Private Equity managers. The firm operates at the intersection of private markets, structured solutions, and investor relations—providing institutional insight with boutique execution.

Aries76 Ltd partners with mid-to-large international Private Equity funds (AUM > €1 billion) seeking to expand their investor base across Europe, the UK, and select global regions, connecting established fund managers with the capital and strategic partners they need to scale.

Our Focus

Aries76 collaborates exclusively with international Private Equity funds managing over €1 billion in AUM. We work with second and later-generation GPs based in Luxembourg, London, Paris, or the Nordics—active across digital infrastructure, healthcare, sustainable industries, industrial technology, and selective consumer & luxury segments.

We support them in accessing private wealth, family offices, and non-traditional Limited Partners across the UK, Central and Eastern Europe, and MENA—enabling strategic capital Established Funds. Global Ambitions.

Aries76 collaborates with second or later-generation General Partners, typically managing between €1–5 billion in assets under management, based globally across key financial centers including Luxembourg, London, Paris, and the Nordic region.

These established managers operate in strategically resilient sectors that demonstrate structural growth and investor conviction. Core sectors include consumer & luxury brands, healthcare and life sciences, digital infrastructure and AI-enabled technologies, industrial technology and automation, and sustainability-focused investments including energy transition and circular economy initiatives.

Our advisory services enable these funds to access sophisticated private wealth channels, family offices, and non-traditional Limited Partners across the UK, Central and Eastern Europe, and MENA regions. This approach facilitates strategic capital formation beyond traditional institutional channels, supporting cross-border fundraising objectives and geographic expansion strategies.

Our Advisory Framework

From Strategy to Investor Access

Fund Positioning & Structuring

Refining fund materials, investment narrative, and LP-facing documentation to enhance clarity, credibility, and differentiation in competitive fundraising environments.

Capital Formation Advisory

Designing and executing investor engagement strategies for cross-border fundraising initiatives. Integrating market intelligence, investor targeting, and relationship development.

Investor Relations & Structured Access

Managing LP communication frameworks and developing tailored investment solutions, including co-investment opportunities and continuation vehicles.

Institutional Insight. Boutique Execution.

Aries76 combines deep private markets expertise with a modern, data-driven approach powered by AIRES (AI-driven intelligence). We act as an external extension of a GP's capital formation team, offering bespoke access to qualified investors and strategic partners across Europe and beyond.

Our model integrates fund positioning, investor targeting, and structured solutions—ensuring that established managers receive strategic support tailored to their specific fundraising objectives and geographic ambitions.

The AIRES platform leverages advanced data analytics to enhance investor targeting, engagement tracking, and relationship intelligence. This technology-enabled approach allows Aries76 to deliver institutional-grade insights with the agility and personalization of a boutique advisory firm.

By combining human expertise with AI-powered intelligence, Aries76 provides fund managers with a competitive edge in identifying, engaging, and securing commitments from high-conviction Limited Partners across fragmented and evolving capital markets.

2026 Private Equity Fundraising Sentiment

The current fundraising cycle is increasingly defined by sectoral resilience and investor conviction. While capital concentration favors established GPs, sector specialization and cross-over strategies are driving differentiated performance.
